

Note: The information shown below has been validated by the SBA.

If the information you provided represents your firm as a small business, please be aware that, for fraudulent misrepresentation as a small business, 15 U.S. C 645(d) provides for imposition of fines, imprisonment, or both; that your firm be subject to administrative remedies, including suspension and debarment; and that your firm be ineligible for participation in programs conducted under the Small Business Act.

If you do not agree with these results, please review your input for number of employees and annual receipts (please note that the size of your business must include the employees and receipts of all affiliates.) You may also need to review your business type selections. If you consider your entity a small business, it must be one that is organized for profit, with a place of business in the United States, and meets the size standard for its industry. For information about the SBA size standards go to <http://www.sba.gov/size/>. If you have questions and would like to speak with your firm's closest SBA Area Office Size Specialist go to <http://www.sba.gov/size/indexcontacts.html>.
